Assuming there are no press types/bloggers in the room, and you tell people it won't be public for a few more weeks, it is fine to tell people.

I will definitely reach out to Joe when I make it to SC.

Jeff,
We figured that was the case. I understand about being strategic about travel. Is it OK for us/government folks to tell the working group that they were chosen for SIBLab?
Let us know when you will be going down there so we can be sure Joe briefs you.
Best,
Megan

Megan and Joe,
Sorry to take so long to figure this out, but I need to pass on this week's meeting and save my SC travel for days when I can see the government folks. With the SIB Lab's expansion to five new states, I have to stay disciplined about my travel schedule so that my travel remains sustainable from a family perspective.

Jeff,
Sorry to pester you about this, but what did you decide about SC?
Best,
Megan
