PURPOSE: Gov. Haley will attend the First Lady's Annual Hats and Gloves Scholarship Tea benefitting the Alice Carson Tisdale Scholarship. The Governor will be presented The First Lady's Visionary Award and will give brief remarks. March is National Women's History Month. The national theme for Women's History Month, 2016, is "Working to Form a More Perfect Union: Honoring Women in Public Service and Government." Claflin is a University committed to producing visionary, global leaders. We are committed to producing young people who will go out into the world and become the future thinkers, leaders, and doers that will effect positive and lasting global change, worldwide. The Governor is receiving the First Lady's Visionary Award because of her courageous efforts valued in her fight to take down the Confederate flag, her heartfelt efforts at attending every funeral of the Emmanuel 9, her commitment to rebuilding SC in the wake of the devastating flood, the positive role model she presents to young girls and women, and the many other things she has accomplished as governor, not to mention that she is the first female and minority governor of our state.

BACKGROUND:

The First Lady's Hats and Gloves Tea is held during the Women's History Month each year in honor of the First Lady of Claflin University, Mrs. Alice Carson Tisdale, and proceeds benefit a scholarship in her name. Each year, an outstanding community member is awarded The First Lady's Visionary Award, and The First Lady's Hats and Gloves Tea scholarship recipient(s) is also recognized.

TALKING POINTS:

Note: 2 minutes of brief remarks. Not an address. The theme is "Working to Form a More Perfect Union: Honoring Women in Public Service and Government."

Efforts you have undertaken for which they are providing you the award:

- Removal of the Confederate Battle Flag from Statehouse Grounds.
- Efforts to attend every funeral of the Emmanuel 9.
- Rebuilding South Carolina in the wake of the October flood.
- First female and minority governor of South Carolina.
- Positive role model to young girls and women.

Suggested Talking Points

- Last year was a different kind of year.
- From the Walter Scott shooting, to the tragedy at Mother Emanuel, to the October floods, great challenges were thrust upon South Carolina.
- We are a different South Carolina than we were one year ago. Of that there can be no doubt. A place, a people, cannot go through what we have gone through and not come out changed on the other side.
- My hope is that we follow the example set by those around us and remain a state that inspired a nation.
- So I will continue to work toward a brighter future.
- I will continue to believe in a stronger South Carolina.
- And I will continue to pray that God gives me – and you – the strength to do every day what we have to do.
