Thinking of Presenting at This Year's Conference?

The National Association of States United for Aging and Disabilities (NASUAD) is pleased to announce the Call for Sessions for the 2016 National Home and Community Based Services Conference, August 29-September 1, 2016 in Washington D.C.

This conference offers a unique blend of policy, program, and practice issues for professionals interested in home and community based services for individuals of all abilities and in all settings. Proposals are currently being accepted for one hour and fifteen minute workshops.

The conference looks to bring the perspective of how states and agencies have developed promising practices, partnered with innovative systems, and formed partnerships. Has your organization been developing outside of the box strategies? Have you collaborated with new agencies or utilized technologies in unexpected ways?

We are seeking original, thought-provoking education sessions that enable national attendees to hear about creative approaches, new ideas, innovative models and emerging trends as well as topics that address the pressing issues facing aging and disability programs.

Submissions are expected to be descriptive and engaging. Consider bringing a panel of partners across agencies or states. Consider exciting and engaging ways of presenting your materials.

Presenting provides an unparalleled opportunity to share new ideas or highlight noteworthy projects, research, and practices with your peers and other professionals. The Call for Sessions for the 2016 HCBS Conference will be open from January 19th - February 29th.
