Subject: Goldfinch Background Information

Background Information:

- Representative Stephen Goldfinch is a hard working conservative Republican who wants to continue to represent the citizens of Georgetown and Charleston County in Columbia. He has been an outstanding legislator and represents well the people and the concerns of his constituents in the 108th district.
- His record of accomplishment has far exceeded that typically achieved by freshman legislators. (Direct quote from Georgetown County Republican Party)
- I am confident that Representative Goldfinch will continue to fight to promote further job growth and create an environment beneficial to families and small businesses within this district and the state.
- Representative Goldfinch has put promised to fight hard to protect the taxpayers in this district and this state by signing the Taxpayer Protection Pledge which opposes any measure to increase taxes.
- Representative Goldfinch knows that it is possible for a limited government to effectively serve citizens where and when the private sector cannot.
- While the government does not create jobs, it can help create an environment that encourages entrepreneurship and innovation. I know when Representative Goldfinch is reelected in November he will continue his work at the state level to help keep bureaucrats off of the backs of small business owners and proprietors.
