thanks; I drive by Baker Motor Co every weekend (its on the way to and from Edisto) and its not a large dealership (its not small, but its not the kind of mega dealership where you would expect 115 dealer tags); as you may recall they were running a dealer tag on one of their service vehicles last year, which you had cancelled not that it will do us any good now, but werent you surprised by the Gov's comments at the cabinet meeting last month re "why is the DMV moving to Blythewood, and do you want to go?" (I thought you handled it well- it wouldnt have accomplished anything by reopening the subject)

Burnie, I see a Dealer tag daily parked behind the Court House. It is very noticeable because it uses a Handicapped space. The number is XX 27448 and has a dealer name from Charleston around it. Please check. Thanks.
