Hey Danny, we sure enjoyed having you and your Lt. Gov. in Edventure last week. The photos with the children in the Cat in the Hat reading were really, really sweet.

I still wish I had one of those hats!

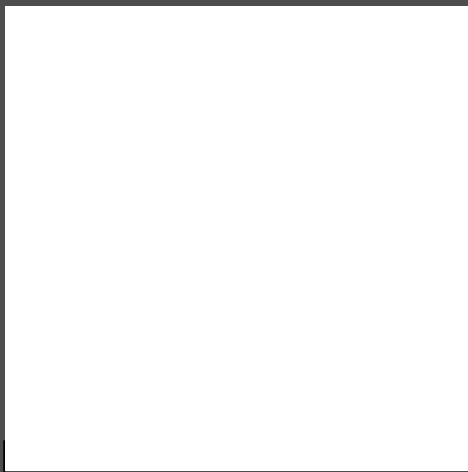

I am writing to formally ask if the Lt. Gov. could come cook with us on May 21st. The funds raised from the event will support our youth development programs at Edventure fulfill a need for youth development programming and career readiness training in South Carolina, statewide.

I have attached the flier and the cooker form. He can cook with a friend to make it more fun! We would be seriously honored if he could join us!

Thanks and please let me know his avails!

Bless you both-Margaret

Sunday, May 21
6:30-9:30pm

EdVenture introduces Columbia to 100 Men Who Cook for Kids, a celebration of the culinary creations by men throughout the Midlands, 6:30-9:30pm, Sunday, May 21. Elected officials, sports stars, public service professionals and prominent men from the community will gather at EdVenture to showcase their best recipes! Guests will experience gastronomical delight as they stroll through EdVenture sampling tasty innovations. Prizes will be awarded to the best cooks. All proceeds will benefit EdVenture's Youth Development Programs for kids in 7th through 12th grade.

How You Can Join the Fun
