USDA-Rural Development Update

Mr. Risher stated that there is more money than ever available in their agency due to the Stimulus Programs. He stated that loans have no penalties for prepayment. Mr. Risher said that the proposed Williston Elko Community Center, the Boys and Girls Club of Southern Carolina, the proposed Williston Library Improvements and the addition to the Detention Center are projects that would qualify for funding through his agency. A preliminary architectural review would need to be done as soon as possible for the Detention Center in order to meet the 09/30/10 loan application deadline.

Administrator Williams was given the authority to proceed with a contract for architectural services for the Detention Center not to $33,000.00 for the storm water survey and preliminary design.

Council agreed to Mr. Risher's request that the $1,837,500.00 commitment that was previously made for an Assisted Living facility be de-obligated.

Administrator Williams was asked to send the list of goals to Council members and have them rank their top ten priorities. His office will tabulate the results.

Other topics that were discussed include:

- Have Debbie review all job descriptions
- Have Jesse send a copy of supply records to Department Heads so usage can be monitored
- Have HMO representatives from the State speak with Council concerning HR processes and grievance procedures

The meeting adjourned at 11:20 am.

Respectfully submitted,
