Dear Tony,

September is here which means we are down to the last few days of the 2015 federal fiscal year. As you wrap up your budgets and begin to make your final IT purchases for the year, we are here to remind you that procuring IT shouldn't take 'an act of Congress.'

Here's how we make IT procurement easy:

- DLT expertise in government technology requirements and technical counsel on the best options for cybersecurity, cloud, application lifecycle, digital design, business applications, IT consolidation and IT management solutions.
- DLT contracting specialists with extensive knowledge with DLT holding more than 40 IDIQ and BPA contracts including, GSA, SEWP V, CIO CS and multiple DoD ESIs.
- DLT licensing experts representing more than 30 leading and emerging IT companies including Oracle, Amazon Web Services, Dell Software, Red Hat, Autodesk, Google, Informatica, SolarWinds, Symantec and Veritas.

For more information on how we can make your end of the year procurements easy, stop by for a quick chat, give us a call at 800.262.4358. You can also email us at sales@dlt.com.

P/S – If you see one of our buses in the DC Metro area, make sure you send us a pic.
