Dear Chaney,

It was nice talking with you today. Thank you for considering our request. We are writing to invite Gov. Haley to contribute an oped to FoxNews.com either before or after she delivers the Republican response on Tuesday night after President Obama's State of the Union address. Just so you have some data, our Opinion section attracts more than 7 million unique individual readers every month. Our entire site attracts more than 41 million unique individual readers every month. As Capital New York reported in May, Fox News' digital numbers are "on par with The New York Times" and ahead of strong digital players like Mail Online." We are also ahead of CNN.com by some measures and, of course, our site outpaces MSNBC.com. All this is to say that an op-ed for FoxNews.com would attract a lot of attention. We would do our best to give the governor's insights prominent play on our site. I believe the her message would be well served. Of course we would also embed video of her response to the president's address in the piece. Thank you for considering our request. Please don't hesitate to contact me at the numbers below if you have any questions.

Warmest regards,
Lynne
