You've seen folks take their picture beside elevation signs at the tops of mountains.....well check out this actual sign from Myrtle Beach State Park! Has anyone taken their picture with it? If so, post it for us to see!

Judy Laysen Took a picture of it last week, but didn't have my husband stand beside it. Should have. Were camping there for 11 days. Our favorite place. Will be back down in March if no before.

Heather C Bishop That is so funny...We have spent 24 days camping here this year, countless times up and down this boardwalk and I can't say we have even seen this sign. But next trip we will have a photo...

Karen Westfall Shaw As someone who has visited Myrtle Beach State Park and hikes to the summits of 14,000' mountains in my home state of Colorado, this strikes me as very funny.
