Updated to include Magistrates bills.

12. Magistrates

- a. H.4457 Civil Jurisdiction Of Magistrates Courts Rep. Huggins
 - i. Increases the civil jurisdiction of the magistrate courts from $7,500 to $15,000.
 - ii. Concerns: increased monetary jurisdiction requires more individuals to litigate before magistrates with limited expertise instead of circuit court judges. Conversely, cheaper to litigate in magistrates court which could be good for defendants.
- b. H.4665—Tallon-- Magistrates screening --Judiciary (1.13.16)
 - i. Requires the Judicial Merit Selection Commission to screen Magistrate applicants prior to appointment.
 - ii. Concerns: restricts the Governor's appointment power, which is contrary to judicial reform more generally.

Attached is the list of bills, short (or somewhat short) descriptions, and at least one concern for each. Not all of the concerns are actually concerns, but more or less items to consider. Other than the list below, I included refugees and the moped registration bill because it has gotten some press recently. This is my first go around, so please feel free to amend this list as y'all see fit.

David,

The way we have typically approach bills requiring her input is to treat that meeting like a ratification meeting, complete with a brief description of each bill in bullet form and one or two bullets on the concern. If we're comfortable that the list is complete in the email traffic below, that's the document I would pull together, just copying and pasting from your master document.

We can review tomorrow if you like.

Thanks,

Josh

On the alimony bills, both would to curb alimony in varying ways, with H.4029 taking a much more aggressive and direct approach.
